Policies for Private Lessons for Choreography

- Any student applying for a Private Lesson must be currently enrolled in the subject that they are applying for, as well as at least 1 weekly non-performing ballet class.
- Completing this application does not automatically ensure a Private Lesson. All Private Lessons are considered a privilege and are given at the discretion of the faculty. Decisions are based on the ability, effort, and ATTITUDE of the student and their progress in their regular weekly classes.
- Dance Spectrum Competition students are invited to enter their Private Lessons into the 3 Team local competitions. Any student that wishes to compete their Private Lesson must pay their own entry fees.
- Any Private Lesson must get the permission of the director before participating in any other competitive events as an independent entry.
- It is the responsibility of the student to retain and perfect the choreography given during choreography and clean up sessions. To aid in the education process, parents are encouraged to video tape at the end of each session.
- Private Lessons will be suspended if Dance Spectrum accounts are not kept current and/or attendance policies are not maintained.
- The entire Dance Spectrum faculty is available for private lessons as well as outside choreographers. Please note that outside choreographers may have different rates than Dance Spectrum faculty.
